

Career Exploration

To assist students with career decisions, a collection of current resource materials on careers, occupations, and undergraduate programs at other universities is located in the campus academic advising offices, the learning resource centers and on the college webpage at <https://www.suscc.edu/current-students/careerservices.cms>.