

Articulation and Dual Enrollment Credit for High School CTE Students

Articulated Credit and Dual Enrollment Credit may be available for high school students participating in a planned sequence of study within a technical field that begins in high school. These two programs help provide linkages between high school Career Technical Education programs and Postsecondary programs. Information is presented in the admissions section of this catalog.