

COS 123 : COSMETOLOGY SALON PRACTICES

This course is designed to allow students to practice all phases of cosmetology in a salon setting. Emphasis is placed on professionalism, receptionist duties, hair styling, hair shaping, chemical, and nail and skin services for clients. Upon completion, the student should be able to demonstrate professionalism and the procedures of cosmetology in a salon setting.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

COS 117, 118, 163, 164 with minimum grade of "C" or permission of instructor.

Lab Hours 9

Corequisites

COS 167, 125.

Theory Hours 0