

CRJ 147 : CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

Course is not part of the Alabama General Studies Curricula and may not transfer to a four (4) year institution. This course involves constitutional law as it applies to criminal justice. It includes recent Supreme Court decisions affecting criminal justice professionals, such as right to counsel, search and seizure, due process and civil rights.

Credits 3