

MSP 105 : LATHES

This course covers the operation and safety practices for engine lathes. Topics include turning, grinding, boring, chamfering, necking, grooving, and threading. Upon completion, students should be able to safely operate an engine lathe using appropriate attachments.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

Permission of instructor.

Lab Hours 4

Theory Hours 1