General Education Core Competencies

The following competencies are the expected outcomes for graduates of degree programs at Southern Union State Community College.

COMMUNICATION: Degree graduates will demonstrate the ability to effectively communicate in academic, work, community, and social settings.

CRITICAL THINKING: Degree graduates will demonstrate the ability to evaluate information, apply reasoning to make a decision, and employ an action.