

Harassment and Sexual Assault Prevention and Response

The College has an established policy for harassment and sexual assault prevention and response. It is in place to assist individuals who feel they have been victimized. The policy identifies campus contact personnel, referral agencies, and immediate response procedures. This policy is available in administrative offices, on the college website, and in the Clery (Campus Crime Statistics) report.