Meal tickets are non-transferable and are for the exclusive use of the purchaser. The user of another's meal ticket will be fined $25.00, payable to the Business Office. If it is determined that the owner of the meal ticket has permitted use of the ticket knowingly and voluntarily, the owner will be fined $25.00. Subsequent violators will face disciplinary action. Lost meal tickets should be reported immediately to the Business Office. The original owner will not be held responsible for its misuse.
