

ENT 214 : ADVANCED AUTOCAD CADD

In this course, students use advanced techniques of AutoCAD computer-aided drafting/design software to develop and render 3-D solids. Topics include 3-D drafting techniques, specialized software applications, development of views, rendering, and plotting. The student will be able to develop the views necessary to fabricate an object using the solid applications of AutoCAD.

Credits 3