

Career Exploration

To assist students with career decisions, a collection of current resource materials on careers, occupations, and undergraduate programs at other universities is located in the campus academic advising offices and the learning resource centers. Additional information is available on the college's webpage here.

Miss Southern Union 2024