

Counseling Referrals

Southern Union recognizes that students may encounter personal problems such as depression, divorce, substance abuse, and other non-academic issues that should be discussed with a person professionally trained to address such situations. Southern Union does not maintain the professional staff required to address these issues nor do we offer therapeutic counseling. The college does, however, provide counseling referral services.

Referral information is available in the office of the Student Life Coordinators and the Associate Dean of Student Affairs.