

General Education Core Competencies

The following competencies are the expected outcomes for graduates of degree programs at Southern Union State Community College.

COMMUNICATION

Degree graduates will demonstrate the ability to effectively communicate in academic, work, community, and social settings.

CRITICAL THINKING

Degree graduates will demonstrate the ability to evaluate information, apply reasoning to make a decision, and employ an action.