

Orientation

An orientation course is required for all technical students who have not already earned 12 semester hours. This course includes academic advising, academic records, campus information, career exploration, financial aid, institutional resources, online learning, and personal growth.